It's been quite a winter, so far, for our congregation!
Milestone birthdays for Claudia, Jane, and Les were the highlights.
Congratulations on their decades of trips around the Sun!

Furnace issues in The Red House forced us to hold January's services in the church (not great for our oil budget).

February's first three Sunday worship services had to be cancelled due to illness and poor travel conditions.

On the bright side, the furnace in The Red House cellar has kept running for 2 weeks in a row. It had been breaking down very four days or so, and it's only a year old!

The weather looks good for this Sunday, so we should be able to get together for worship in The Red House at last. See you there!

What surprises are in store for us in March? An early Spring would be most welcomed.

The next Prudential Committee meeting is scheduled for this Sunday, February 23rd, at Noon in The Red House.
